SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

A WORLD CORRESPONDENT'S PERSONAL EX-PERIENCE WITH YELLOW FEVER.

PRICE ONE CENT.

WOMEN OF THE WHITE HOUSE.

EVEN SURVIVING LADIES WHO HAVE PRESIDED WITH OUR PRESIDENTS.

SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Nellie Bly's Sketches of Mrs. Polk, Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnston, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Garfield and Mrs. McElroy.

A Most Interesting Group of American Ladies—De-lightful Reminiscences.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Paraders' Enthusiasm Not Dampened by the Storm.

A Great Throng of Cleveland Supporters in Line.

The Reviewing Stand Erected at Worth's Monument

This muggy, misty morning could not dampen the enthusiasm of the thousands of men in all ranks of life, who had determined to march in the Democratic procession in honor of Cleveland and Thurman.

As oarly as 9 o'clock young men and old men, with handsome badges of various colors fluttering on their breasts, were rushing about in the downtown districts making final preparations for the start.

Grand Marshal John Lander's headquarters, in the Stevens House, were crowded at 10 A. M. by captains of different clubs, who wanted more badges. They declared that their first estimates as to the number they would want was not half enough to supply the men who came asking for places in the line this morning.

line this morning.

Only a few people asked if the rain would cause a postponement.

They were assured in a voice that could be

They were assured in a voice that could be across the street by Sccretary Charles W. Strachan that the parade would go on if it rained "cats and dogs."

He found several opportunities of "ringing in" a favorite joke of his, saying: "Like the case of the man who was going to be langed, there will be no postponement on account of the weather." It cost him the cigars every time. cigars every time.

No one seemed to want a postponement.

No one scened to want a postponement. Everybody regretted, of course, that the day was not a fine one, but they cheerfully made the best of the situation.

Little bands of enthusiastic men met in Battery Park, on Broadway, in the side streets, and soon was heard from all directions the refrain:

Grover! Grover! He'll hold over!

Word was received early at the Stevens House that in defiance of the weather, and in accordance with the spirit displayed by the paraders, the President would be surely out to review them. Every one knew he would, but still the news was received with a cheer just the same.

Major John Landers ordered the parade to form as follows:

Foliae Eacort,
Grand Mershal and Staff.
Officers of the Conference Committee.
Seventh Regiment Band.
Marshal First Division and Staff.
Produce Exchange Club, to form on Beaver street, right resting on Broadway, Lawyers' Club, to form on Whitehall street, right resting on Beaver.
Independent Young Men's Club, to form on Beaver, right on Broad street on left of Lawyers' Club.
Wine and Spirit Traders' Club, to form on Beaver, right on Broad street, right resting on Broad street, right on Broad street, right on Broad street, right on Bowling Green
Cotton Exchange Club, to form on Broad street, right on Bowling Green
Stock Exchange Club, to form on Wall street, right on Auxiliary Stock Club, to form on Wall street, right on Wall street.
Cousolidated Stock Club, to form on Exchange place, right on Green as treet. Auxiliary Stock Club, to form on Broad street, right on Wall atreet.

Consolidated Stock Club, to form on Exchange place, right on Broad street.

Exchange Brokers, to form on Exchange place, right on Broad street.

Coffee Exchange Club, to form on Wall street, right on Broadway.

Law Students' Club, to form on Wall street, right on Water street.

Custom-House Brokers' Club, to form on Hanover, right on Water street.

Insurance Men's Club, to form on Cedar, right on Broadway.

Jewellers' Club, to form on Maiden lane, right on Broadway.

Mechanics and Builders' Club, to form on Park place, right on Broadway.

Mide and Leather Club, Boot and Stoc Club, to form in Club, Hall Park, opposite Murray street.

West Side Business Men, to form on Warren street, right on Broadway.

Bankers in Carriages, to form on Chambers street, right on Broadway.

Bankers in Carriages, to form on Chambers street, right on Broadway.

Marshal Recond Division and Staff.

First Division Dry Goods, to form on west side of Leonard street, right on Broadway.

Commercial Club, to form on east side of Leonard street, right on Broadway.

Commercial Club, to form on west side of Leonard Staffrond Men's Club, to form on west side of Leonard Staffrond Men's Club, to form on west side of Franklin, Photographers' Fint on Church street.

Bailtroad Men's Club, to form on west side of White street, right on Church street.

Photographers' Fint on Church street.

Mallers, Manusca, to form on west side of White street, right on Church street.

Independent Colored Club, to form on west side of White street, right on Church street.

Holesale Drug Men, to form on west side of White street, right on Church street.

Holesale Drug Men, to form on west side of White street, right on Church street.

which to view the parade,

A miserable, drizzling rain fell, but the majority of the sight-seers were wrapped in waterproofs and did not seem to mind the waterproofs and did not seem to mind the wet.

In and about the Stevens House and the various exchanges all was bustle and confusion. The various companies are preparing to take up their position in the localities assigned to them from which they were to fall in in their resp. ctive order as the main body passed up Broadway.

Shortly after 1 o'clock nearly all preparations for the parade to start had been made, and at 1.33 the order forward march was given and the big procession went ahead.

Up to that point the men marched on Broadway, then turned west to Fifth avenue.

Up that thoroughfare past the reviewing stand at Worth's Monument, and thence to Seventh avenue and Twenty-ninth street, the disbanding point.

disbanding point.

The following gentlemen were appointed on Grand Marshal Lander's staff, and assisted him ably:

him ably:

Col. W. F. Moller, Stock and Consolidated Exchange; F. W. Ritter, Annex Stock Exchange; Edward D. Appleton, publisher; Peter Hellenbeck. West Side Business Men; Vincent Losser, Produce and Maritime; Louis A. Conswiller, Chatom-House broker; J. D. Kurtz Gook, coal trade; Gen. John H. Woodward, Cotton Exchange; E. L. Ridgway, Produce Exchange; W. Wendler, Cotton Exchange; M. Wendler, Cotton Exchange; M. Montant, John P. Faure, H. Hart Lyon, Stock Exchange; John A. McCall, Hugh B. Mack, Law-Jers Cleveland and Thurman Club.

Although the Retail Dry-Goods Cleveland

Although the Retail Dry-Goods Cleveland and Thurman Club did not start in a body most of its members were in the ranks with other organizations.

A delegation of 600 men in the woollen trade from Philadelphia were also given positions in the ranks. They dres-ed alike in black suits, black hats, white gloves and red boutonnières.

red boutonnières.

The grand stand was completed this morning. The President's position on the stand while reviewing the parade was barricaded in.

The stand was built to accommodate 700

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S VISIT.

He Will Dine with Secretary Whitney After the Parade and Leave at 7 P. M.

President Cleveland had just finished his norning meal and was engaged in reading his morning paper when an Evening World reporter called at Secretary Whitney's house, No. 2 West Fifty-seventh street, to-day.

The President arrived from Washington in a special car last evening, and was accompanied by his wife; her mother, Mrs. Folsom; Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. Cleveland's friend, and Col. Lamont. Mrs. Lamont d d not come with the party, as has been stated.

All went at once from the depot in Jersey City to Secretary Whitney's residence except Col. Lamont, who passed the night at the Victoria Hotel.

Se retary Whitney received the Evening World President's plans for to-day as far as they have been decided upon.

"Mr. Cleveland is very well and in excellent spirits this morning," said Mr. Whitney.

"He and his party will remain with me until after luncheon, and will then be driven to Madison Square in time for the parade at 2 o'clock.

"I am sure nothing will prevent Mr. Clevehis morning paper when an Evening World o'clock.

'I am sure nothing will prevent Mr. Cleveland from reviewing the Democratic parade from the platform in Madison Square. He has come here for that purpose, you know, and will surely be there.

'The ladies will review the procession. too, from a window in either the Fifth Avenue Hotel or the Albemarle. Then, when the parade is over I expect they will all return and dine with me before leaving for Washington, although they may decide not to do this.

Washington, atthough the dothis.

'Their train leaves for Washington at 7 o'clock, and as their time after the parade will be limited they may think it best to alter their plans.

With the exception of the event of the day the President's visit here will be a very quiet one."

Col. Lamont, the President's private secretary, was not at the Victoria Hotel when the reporter called. Secretary Whitney stated that Mr. Lamont will return to Washington with the President.

REGISTRATION'S LAST DAY.

A Big Enrolment and a Force of Detectives Watching for Fraud.

This is the last day of registration, and in spite of the rain there was a big enrolment this morning. Yesterday the places of registration were most carefully watched by Central Office detectives.

Very few cases of illegal registration were reported. It was thought the attempt will be made on this, the last day of registration, to fill the books with the names of illegal voters.

There was increased vigilance and a bountiful harvest of colonists is expected to result.

There were 66.041 names added to the reg. There were 65.041 names added to the registry list yesterday, showing an increase over the registration for the three days of 1884 of 85.214. To day's registration is expected to increase the number of registered votes to 290,000. This means that there will be polled about two hun red and seventy thousand votes a week from next Tuesday.

GEN. NEWTON AND MAYOR HEWITT.

One Busy on a Letter, the Other Too Busy to Write One.

Gen. Newton is busily engaged to-day in writing a reply to Hugh J. Grant's latest

He had arranged a few main points of the message when an Evening World reporter called at his office in the Department of Pub-lic Works, but it will not be completed for publication until to-night.

Mayor Hewiti's attention was monopolized to-day by the duties of his office, and the reporter was informed that he would not have time to-day to prepare a letter to Messrs. Purroy and Croker.

Brought in a Dying Skipper. Capt. Hubbell, of the commission schooner Wm. J. Lermond, arrived at Quarantine in a dying condition to-day on the bark Ada J. Gould, from Port Morant, in Jamaica.

Last Thursday sno fell in with the Lermond, which was bound from Philadelphia with coal for lew Orleans.

The chief mate of the Lermond reported that the captain was down with fever and was also mea-taily deranged. He begged the captain of the Gould to take the sick man to port for medical treatment. Capt. Hubbell was removed to Hospi-tal Island.

Elopers Caught at Newark.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] NEWARK, Oct. 27.—The sixteen-year-old daugher of Jacob Levy, of 44 Elizabeth street, New York, left her home last night with twenty-one-year-old Frederick Sheer, of this city. Chief of Police Hopper was notified of the runaway by telegraph and arrested the couple as they slighted at the Market street station of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Later the girl was taken back by her father, while Sheer was discharged from custody.

The Broadway cars did not run below Wayerley place after noontime.

At noontime people were picking out the best positions along the line of march from DAY WORLD.

DAY WORLD.

Murderous Secret Societies.

The Italian Murderous Secret Societies.

The Italian Murderous Secret Societies.

DAY WORLD.

DAY WORLD. Murderous Secret Societies. The Italian

Clifton Entries for Monday.

(special to the evening world.)
CLIPTON, N. J., Oct. 27.—The following are the entries for the Clifton races Monday, Oct. 29;

-	Raster Sunday 118 Tornado
18	Hypon 115 Granite
0.0
O n
	Helen B 110 Woodstock
	Tourmaline 110 Mattie Locram
	Lagardere
	Lagardere
٠.	quarters of a mile.
n	quarters of a since.
••
n	McLaughlin 110 Bill Bond
	Stripling 110 Cspulin
١.	Bishop 108 Sufter
g	Masture 108 Prodigal
	Armstrong 107 Bine Jay
0	Adoleh 105 Giendon
e	Monte Cristo 105 Nellie Van 9
d
	Ariel 105 Chancellor
d	Howerson 100 Sister Euphrasia
7	Can't Tell 100 Highland Mary
	Third Race -Purse $250; selling allowances; fi eighths of a mile.
	Lh.
0.7	Fulton 118 Addison
	Fulton
1-
	Alice 115 Glendora galding
•	Kingsford 113 Range
	Free Lance 111 Wheat
	Shaher 111 Not Guilty
5	California 110 Temptation
0.1	Yololo 108 George Corbett
	108 Savara

Fourth Race, -Purse 8000, handicap; eighth. Young Duke

Bilk Umbrellas Still Given Away. Use the "ONE OF THE FIREST" TORAGOO and seigene.

Minister Phelps Confers with Premier Salisbury.

Belief that the British Minister Will Be Recalled.

Intense Excitement Among the Politi cians in Loudon,

INPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.1
LONDON, Oct. 27.—Minister Phelps has gon to Lord Salisbury's residence in Hertfordshire to confer with the Premier on the Lord Sackville-West letter.

Irish Citizens Interviewed by "The Evening

World."

In political circles the incident has created intense excitement. It is believed that Lord Salisbury will recall Lord Sackville. Mr. Phelps is undoubtedly acting under instructions from Washington.

WILL HAVE NO EFFECT.

Irishmen Whose Vote Will Be Changed by the Letter Fall to Materialize.

A detail of EVENING WORLD reporters this morning interviewed a large number of Irishmen to ascertain what effect, if any, the Murchison " letter, written by Lord Sackville-West, will have upon their votes in the present election.

Some of the opinions are appended: present election.

Some of the opinions are appended:
John O'Brien, printer, 32 Oak street—I regard the letter as a campaign scheme on the part of the Republicans, and all sensible people know that the sayings of the British Minister cannot shape an American administration. Minister Cests ought to go home to England, where he belongs. Nobody will take any stock in it, you can bet on that.
Peter P. White, clerk, Catholic World—I have read Minister West's letter, and I can state positively that its contents can have no influence whatever upon anybody. I reside in Guttenburg, N. J., and know that none of my friends will take any stock in it. It is simply a liepublican dodge, and everybody must regard it as such.
Miles O'Brien, a salesman for H. B. Claffin & Co.
—The Sackville-West letter will not influence me one particle, because I believe it is a trick and a device. Whether Mr. West is a victim of the scheme or the willing agent I can't tell.
John O'Leary, Uquors, Beckman st., near Nessau
—Will stick to Harrison.
J. Scott, teeman, 500 W. 57th st.—Will vote for Cleveland.
Tim Flynn, salcon, 117 Nassan st.—Will vote for Cleveland, letter or no letter.
T. M. Lynck, liquors, 99 Nassau street—Sure to vote for Cleveland. Thinks the letter will have no effect.
Thomes O'Condor, 70 Nassau street—For CleveThomes O'Condor, 70 Nassau street—For Clevefrect.

Thomas O'Connor, 70 Nassau street...For Cleve...

Thomas O'Connor, 70 Nassau street—For Cleveland.

Wm. Ryan, real estate, 70 Liberty street—Thinks it a put up job and will surely vote for Cleveland.

James Harrison, Frinter, 17 Centre street.—The whole thing was originated by one of the Republican leaders, and no sensible Irishman will pay any attention to it. It is absurd to think that it will gain votes for Harrison.

Jeremiah Donovan, printer, 247 Clinton street—The Republicans are trying to get hold of something now which they think might save them, but they have made a great mistake. That letter will have no effect upon the Irish.

John J. Farrell, Manager, Catholic World—I do not think that the publication of the letter will affect the situation seriously. I shall vote for Mr. Cleveland in spite of all the letters which West may write.

nay write. Party Frish World—I think that Mr. Patrick Ford, Irish World—I think that Mr. Wost's letter must have some effect on thinking rishmen, though the extent cannot be estimated, mericans generally will resent this interference with their affairs, and probably the result will be can at the polls.

with their shalls, seen at the polls.

W. Traver. Cutholic Union—The letter will have no weight in changing the direction of the big irish Democratic vote. Irish Democratic vote.
Lawrence Develin, Catholic Union—I am a Democrat and shall vote that way in spite of all the etters in the alphabet—not barring Minister letters in the alphabet—not barring Minuster West's.

James Sadiler, of the firm of D. & J. Sadiler, bookseller, SI Barclay street—I don't think the letter will change the opinions of many Democrats, and esyecially the 150 men in the employ of this firm, all of whom are for Cieveland and will surely vote that way.

Major P. M. Haverry, bookseller, 14 Barclay street, thought that the letter would have very little effect on the Democratic vote.

Gen. Michael Kerwin, editor of the Tablet, said: "I am speaking now as a partisan. We have made the allegation all along that Mr. Cleveland is friendly to the British inducence, and if the Minister be not chastised, it will go far to prove the position that the opponents of Mr. Cleveland have taken."

Bryan G. McSwyny said: "Oh, dear, no. The letter won't influence any one who has a little common sense.

Bryan G. Mccwyny sain: 'On, dear, no. The letter won't influence any one who has a little common sense.

James Desmond, a prominent Irishman, of San Francisco, said: 'The letter is a numbug—a catch-penny affair—and Minister West was made the dupe of some tricky Republican who desires to make use of the letter for campaign purposes. People understand that it is a political dodge, and they value it accordingly. It was gotten up expressly to take away the sympathy of the frish people from the Democratic party. I don't think it will be a success."

Lawyer James O'Gormon said: "I do not believe the letter will affect any one's vote. By reason of the antecedents of Mr. Harrison it might be supposed that Lord Sackville-West would prefer to see the Republican candidate our next President."

E. Cott, 2 Broadway, is too strong a Democrat E. Cott, 2 Broadway, is too strong a Democrat to be turned by such a letter.

James McDonald, 9 Barciay street—It will make no difference to good Democrata.

Taomas Fiynn, 2 West Tairteenth street, said that the letter would not affect him.

Jeremiah Pitzpatrick, 1239 Broadway, will stick to his colora. He considers the letter of Minister West a nelp to the Democratic party if properly turned to account.

J. D. Flynn, of the Catholic Publication Society, No. 9 Barciay street—Takes no stock in the letter.

Will not to influenced by it.

No. 9 Barclay street—Takes no stock in the letter. Will not be influenced by it.

C. M. Therney, also of the Catholic Publication Society—Holds the same opinion.

Michael McManon, of P. O'Shea's publishing house, 45 Warren street, says he thinks the letter a fake, and that he does not think any one will be influenced by any such stuff.

Henry L. Hoguet, Freendent of the Emigrants' Industrial Savings Bank, 51 Chambers street—Neither this letter nor anything else from any of Queea Victoria's officers will influence my vote, some citizens of English birth might be influenced in their votes by an expressed common from so high a source as that of a Minister of State from Great Britain.

high a source as that of a Minister of State from Great Britain.

Robert E. Ford, one of the editors of the New York Freeman's Jonathal, No. 45 Warren street, thinks the letter will cost Cleveland at least 10,000 wotes and cause the election of Harrison and Morton, as it ought. Mr. Ford is a Republican.

T. F. Mechan, editor of the Inth American, agrees with Judge Thurman that the letter is a palpable Republican trick, and will have no effect except to more thoroughly convince the public of Lord Sackville-West's desire to injure the Democratic party and elect his old friend, Senator Ben Harrison.

Harrison.

In all seventy-five interviews with Irishmen were gathered in a half-hour. Not a Democratic vote among these will be changed by the letter. But four Irish Republicans thought it could not fail to lose votes for Cleveland. Several Democrats expressed the opinion that the letter might act as a boomerang for the Hepublicans, inasmuch as the discussion will bring out the fact that Minister West is a warm friend of Gen. Harrison and naturally desires to see him elected.

WILL SACKVILLE GO? HOW CAN THEY VOTE? A BRUTAL MURDER.

Being Disfranchised. More Voters This Year Than the Inspectors Can Handle.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1888.

The Police Commissioners Say They Are Helpless.

The Police Commissioners are greatly troubled over the increased registration of voters.

rotes and it looks now as though thousands of voters in this city will be disfranchised be cause of the inability to receive their ballots, Heretofore the Commissioners have made it a rule that there shall be no more than 400 voters in any one election district, and the districts have been divided with this end in

This year forty-four new election districts have been made, and it was thought that the increase in the voting population would be provided for by this increase in the number of districts. provided for by this increase in the nu of districts.

It has not proven a sufficient increase.

It has not proven a sufficient increase.

In many election districts the returns of registration show that the vote will be double the 400 which is provided for, and in some districts the registered vote will reach 1,000 by the time the registry boards close their work to night.

In the Seventeenth Election District of the Twenty-third Assembly District there are now 546 voters registered and this number will be swelled to 700 by to-day's addition.

Seven hundred and twenty-three had registered in the thirty-two Election Districts of the Twenty-second District up to last night, and to-day's registration will increase the number probably to 1,000.

The polls are open but ten hours, according to law, and estimating that the votes are polled at the rate of one a minute, 600 is the largest number that can be polled.

The highest record of votes received at any previous election was 600.

This below the greatest number that the in-previous election was 690.

This being the greatest number that the inspectors can handle, it follows that one-third of the voters in some districts will be dis-This is a startling condition of things the Police Commissioners admit, but they claim that under the law they have no power to remedy it before the coming election.

HIS WIFE WAS FALSE.

Poor Tietelbaum Brooded Over It Until He Killed Himself.

Nathan Tietelbaum, a poor, hard-working furrier, lies dead at his former home, at 113 Ridge street. He jumped out of a sixth-story window last night at 8,30 o'clock and alighted on his hast night at 8.30 o'clock and alighted on his back.

His skull, arms and legs were broken and he was injured internally—literally crushed to a pulp by the fall. The distance was about sixty-five feet.

about sixty-five feet.

A day or two ago Tietelbaum went home early and surprised his wife, a dark-eyed, pretty brunette, in dishonorable relations with a young male boarder.

The injured husband did not act precipitately, but left his little tenement and brooded over the episede. He confided the brooded over the episede. He confided the story of his trouble to a friend, and declared he did not want to live. His friend counselled wisely, and advised him to refrain from acting rashly; but the poor fellow worried over the unfaithfulness of his wife until, in a fit of madness, he ran to the open window and look his fatal jump. The boarder decamped on Thursday and has not since been seen.

The wife was found this afternoon lying in bed in a rear room at her home, appare inconcerned about the tragic death of husband.

Two young children are left fatheriess. SANK TEN MINUTES LATER.

Narrow Escape of the Captain and Crew a German Brig.

A dozen shipwrecked mariners came into port to-day on the British brig Julia Blake which left San Blas thirty-five days ago.

On Oct. 6, while in latitude 23, 30, longitude cued.

Capt. Remts reports that his vessel left Barenquella on Bept. 27, with a cargo of tusks, bound for Falmouth, England. A succession of violent gales were encountered, and the draft was badly strained. The sailors were exhausted from constant pumping, when the Blake put in an appearance.

The Venus sunk ten minutes after being abandoned. The vessel registered 193 tons and hailed from Hamburg, where she is Alleged Illegal Registration. ames Dorian, twenty-three years old, and Jame irchbold, twenty-four years old, were arraigned before Justice Patterson at the Yorkville Police Court this morning on a charge of lilegally regis-tering themselves as residing at 332 East Thirty-eighth street. They swore that they slept at that number and Dorian's parents confirmed the story. The case will be brought up again to-morrow.

The Inman steamer City of Berlin, arriving from liverpool, reports sighting the steamer City of New York, of the same line, on Thursday at 10, 30 o'clock A.M. The New York was 405 miles east of Sandy Hook, and as the yeasel was these but twenty-four hours out, the run up to that time had been

The divers at work on the sunken steamer Atlas ucceeded in getting the ship's mail. The bags were at once transferred to the Post-Office, where The mail was in fairly good conditi

The work of extending North Third avenue to Fordham will doubtlessly soon be begun. Judge l'atterson's Commission, who was appointed to ap-praise the value of the land to be taken, submitted ineir report a few days ago, and a motion for its confirmation has been made. Mrs. Parnetl Is for Cleveland. A strong appeal to Irish voters in behalf of Cleveland and Hill has been made by Mrs. Parnell, mother of that great Irish patriot, Charles Stewart

Many Citizens Run a Chance of Its Victim Discovered in a New

An Aged and Unknown Woman Outraged and Killed.

Jersey Swamp.

The Horrible Discovery Made by Hunters at Secaucus,

What appears to be a most horrible and revolting murder, its victim a gray-haired woman of sixty years, is absorbing the attention of New Jersey authorities.

On Thursday morning a father and son were out hunting. They were tramping through the salt meadows in Secaucus when the boy's attention was attracted to a pile o clothing lying near a fence.

Father and son walked towards the fence. and were horrified to see the remains of s woman, huddled down and lying in a pool of water, with the lower part of the body ex-

The place where the body was found was about a mile back of the Shady Side Hotel. The alarm was sent to Messrs, Inglebrecht and Whittlericht, the keepers of the hotel, and they notified Coroner Geschwind. Morgue-Keeper B. N. Crane, of Hoboken, n being notified, despatched two of his assistants to bring the body to the Morgue.

They drove out to the spot and found the soman lying in the shrubbery close to the snce. She had been dead about fifteen hours. The woman's head was thrown back, and her mouth and eyes were wide open. Her right hand was lying underneath her body, and the left hand was held out as if in a defensive position.

From the position of the limbs and the clothing the woman had evidently been assaulted.

After lighting several matches, for darkness

After lighting several matches, for darkness was fast approaching, and carefully searching the ground for anything that might lead to a clue or an identification, the two men removed the body to the wagon.

There were foot prints all around the place where the body was found, and these are taken as evidences of a struegle.

The body was taken to Crane's Morgue, in Hoboken, and Coroner's Physician Converse made an examination. He came to the conclusion that an outrage had been attempted, or had been committed.

The woman wore au old brown silk dress, red fiannel underclothing, brown stockings, but no shoes. She also had a black velvet sacque, and this was covered by another cloak of white material, trimmed with black plush. Near the body a black, knotted, worsted cap, trimmed with red, was found.

On the finger of the dead woman was an old-gold wedding ring. There had been engraving on the inside of it at some time, but it was worn down so that it could not be deciphered.

Nothing was found in the clothing save a it was worn down so that it could not be deciphered.

Nothing was found in the clothing save a half bunch of celery and two carrots.

The woman was seen on Wednesday morning passing the Shadyside Hotel, and later in the day she was at Homestead Station, four miles this side of Secaucus.

Since the body was brought to the Morgue over a score of people have called, but none has positively identified the dead.

A man about twenty-six years old, 6 feet tall, of light complexion and wearing no beard, called at the Morgue this morning and said that he thought the body that of his grandmother. He refused to give his name and left, saying that he would call again in a couple of days.

couple of days.

Unless the body is identified before Monday, it will be interred in the Potters Field, in New Durham.

The locality in which the body was discovered. ered bears a very unsavory reputation. It is infested with tramps and toughs of the low

SPECIAL NOTICE.

After the Baseball Season closes, the Lovers of Sports will continue to find in The Evening World's " Extra full and accurate accounts of the events of the Tracks, the Football Field, the Ring, the Gymnasium and General Sports.

ET. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 27.—A three-mile boa Vail, of this city, was rowed yesterday afternoon on the Kennebaccasis River. The stakes were $300 a side. Vall won easily in 23 minutes. When Galacangh reached the wharf on the homestretch he rowed ashore. The reason given for this was that he had thrown his knee out of joint in making d thrown his knee out of joint in making He was carried to his room, and Val

Hundred and Thirtieth street, was held in $1,500 ball at Jefferson Market to-day. His sged father accased him of ill-treatment and of defrauding him of $1,100 obtained by the sale of the old man's farm in Switzerland. The father testified that has son had tried to ship nim to Europe and had tried to lose him at Castle Garden.

The "Armstrong Regulars," a Democratic fac-tion, hold a city Convention this afternoon. A great torchight procession has been arranged by the Democrats for to-night.

BABY NORMA IN COURT.

She Was Just as Bright and Chipper as Baby Norma, the abducted baby, was in Jefferson Market Court this morning in her mamma's arms. So was Rose Lavery in court, very red in the face and tearful. So were John Benson and Edward J. Power, who tried to get money from the Mearstamans for tried to get money from the Meerssemans for tried to get money from the Meerssemans for returning Baby Norma.

The small Italian boy, James Delessa, who got the baby and gave her to Miss Rosa Smith, was also there.

Mr. Julian Meersseman was with his wife and baby, and the tiny store at 167 Wooster street was closed.

Justice Duffy read the charge of abducting the baby to Rose and the two young men. Rose declared that she had no intention of taking the baby. She brought it back at 10 o'clock Tuesday night, but couldn't get in. Then she went away and got full of beer and fright and didn't dare to bring the baby back.

back.

Benson and Power said they met the woman Lavery Thursday night and saw the baby. They agreed to see her Friday night. Then they went to the Meerssemans and said said they could get the baby. Mrs. Meersseman said she would give a reward, but they disclaimed any idea of reward.

Justice Duffy held the three for $3,000 bail.

bail.

Detective Mullin said the woman Lavery was an old timer, who was called "Canaller Rose." Miss Lavery confessed to an Evzning World reporter that she had been on a canal-boat a good part of the time since last Tuesday.

Baby Norma looked clean and bright to day and cooed volubly at Justice Duffy.

SHERIFF GRANT HADN'T HEARD OF IT. Not Likely That He and Mayor Hewitt Wil

Form a Debating Society. Tammany Hall managers laugh at the Hewitt meet in public debate on the question

One of the Committee of Twenty-five said this morning:

'There is no necessity for Sheriff Grant to debate this question. The people have been and still are seriously debating it and the majority of them, we are confident, will be found to decide with our candidate when the vote is taken Nov. 6."

Sheriff Grant had not heard of the proposition when soen by The Evening World reporter.

BLAINE TO SPEAK IN NEWARK.

He Will Be in the Hands of the First Pres-

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, NEWARK, Oct. 27.-James G. Blaine, accom panied by Gen. Adam E. King, will visit Newark to-night and address the Republicans at Bellevue Avenue Rink and at Saenger Hall, the two extremes of the city. Mr. Blaine will first speak at the rink while the Seneral will hold forth on the hill. Then the General will hold forth on the hill. Then the positions will be reversed.

The party visits Newark on invitation of the First Presidential Voters' Association.

Mr. Blaine's party will arrive in Newark about 6 o'clock, and will be cared for as guests of George A. Halsey. There will be no formal parade, but it is probable that individual clubs will escort the spe akers from one point to the other.

So Says Our Champion Weather Prophet on the Equitable Building. hance of clear weather to-watching the raindrops pattering in the little watching the raindrops pattering in the little pools that had collected in the hollows of the brick-tiled roof of the Equitable Building.

"The storm centre has not yet reached us, and when it does it will rain harder still, you may depend upon it.

"It is one of the old-fashioned northeasters, that is liable to last anywhere from a day to a week, and always knocks the predictions of the oldest weather prophets into a cocked hat. People who parade to-day had better take rubber coats and umbrellas with them." A Parade for Wednesday Night. The Cleveland and Thurman Club of the Elevent on Wednesday evening next, in which all the Den on Wednesday evening next, in which all the Democratic clubs of the district will be invited to participate. On motion of President Abram Bernard, Mr. Augustus L. Heckler, the United Democratic candidate for Alderman, was chosen Marsual.

There was a largely attended meeting last night of Club No. 4 of the Sixteenth Assembly District, at which Counsellor Michael J. Kelly, Judge Blake and Paulin Abreu apoke.

What Does This Mean ? placed upon the calendar of the Courts of Genera

Sessions for trial recently.

It is suleged that many of them are old indictments against Tammany liquor-sellors who propose to vote for Grant. Samuel D. Sewards and ex-Ald. Henry Aute eith waited on Mayor Hewitt this morning and Game for To-Day. World's Championship—New York vs. St. Louis at St. Louis. Partly cloudy.

Local News Condensed. Joseph and Simon Koshland have obtained an attachment against the property of the Berkshire Woodlen Company, of Great Barrington, Mass., upon a claim of $4,623.62. Edward Murray, a note veteran freman, for-merly of Long Island City, died at 510 East Eighty-sixth street, New York, to-day.

Weather indications For Eastern New York

-Rain; warmer south easterly winds, brisk or 1985, 1887, 55 37 60 fours, 54 5 9 degrees, 50 1-9 de-

Our Interviewing Corps Polls the White-Apron Men.

Morning's Work.

Interesting Incidents of the

The phalanx of interviewers started from Tax EVENING WORLD office this morning on its final trip, with Washington and Fulton Markets as the blective points. Saturday morning is always a busy time at the great marts and the Interviewing Corps found all the butchers, greengrocers, butter and cheese men and fishdealers on hand at their stalls when they marketmen, who deserted their business for the moment, in order to enable them to get their names registered in The World's list of voters.

Old women with their baskets, who had come to market to lay in a supply of provender for their families for the coming week, gazed with amazement at the unusual commotion, and wondered what it was all about and why they could not get waited on, for all the stalls in the vicinity were deserted as soon as a young mea with a blue badge made his abperance.

The invasion of the corps was in fact the biggest sensation that both markets had experienced in a long time, and the result of an hours work by the phalanx among the picturesque festions of quarters of beef, mutton and pork, baskets of onions and turnings, and dripping counters loaded down with red-snappers and nalibut, showed that the slaughter had been great.

An interesting incident of the morning's camber of the common of the control of the morning's camber of the common of the common of the morning's camber of the common of the c

THE POLL OF THE MARKETS. THE FOLL OF THE MARKETS.

The result of the canvass in the two big markets is in tabular form as follows:

Total interviewed. 181
For Cleveland. 118
For Harrison. 5
Changes, Blaine to Cleveland. 5
Changes, Cleveland to Harrison 5
First voters, Cleveland 8
First voters, Cleveland 8 for Hill..... For Grant
For Hewitt
For Enardt
For Coogan

Martin Oates—A sound Dem. Is going to vote for Grant. Martin Oates—A sound Dem. Is going to vote for Grant.

John E. Schopp, 185 Wash. Market—Harrison, Miller and Hewitt.
Henry Kracke, 317 Wash. Market—Rep. Hewitt for Mayor.
F. Henry Kracke, butter dealer, 317 Wash. Market—Harrison, Miller and Hewitt.
C. W. Henry, butcher, 169 Wash. Market—Rep. Hewitt for Mayor.
George Schick, butter dealer, 378 Wash. Market—Harrison, Miller and Hewitt.
George W. Bloomfield, butcher, Wash. Market—Harrison, Miller and Hewitt for Mayor.
H. A. Kelley, poultry, Washington Market—Straight Dem.
3. G. Kells. Parter, Pulton Market—Lives in Bklyz. Cleveland. Miller, because of Hill's altitude towards High License hill.

REPUBLICANS FOR HEWITT.

George Ownes, poultry dealer, 171 Washington Market—Harrison, Miller and Hewitt.

P. B. Eckert, butter dealer, 169 Washington Market—Rep., with Hewitt for Mayor.

William Hanker, poultry dealer, 171 Washington Market—Harrison, Miller and Hewitt.

G. E. Stuewinger, butcher, 316 Wash. Market—Harrison, Miller and Hewitt.

George Koell, 175 Wash. Market—Straight Rep. Hewitt for Mayor.

W. J. Stockhaumer, butcher, 218 E. 39th st.—Dem. straight.

P. J. Fogarty, one of the firm of Fogarty Brothers, Wash. Market—Cleveland. Hill and Grant.

W. Liontinstein, butcher, 511 Myrite ave., Brooklyn—Dem. straight.

John Harris, butcher, 40 and 48 Wash. market—Harrison and Morton. Hill for Governor. Grant for Mayor.

W. P. Smith, poultry dealer, 404 W. 15th st.—Straight Dem.

HARRISON AND HILL.

J. Davis, butcher, Wash, Market—Harrison and Hill now. Lives on Long Island.

Jonn Butler, truckman, Wash, Market—Was abways a Dem., and will vote for Cleveland and Hill, as betore, and for Grant and the entire Tammany liall county tienet.

Martin Rooney, butcher, Wash. Market, lives in B'klyn—Cleveland and Hitl.

Augustus Briggs, and stall 305—Straight Rep.

Artnur Slevin, Comptroller's Department, Wash.

Market—Voted straight Dem. tienet in '84, and will again this year. Hewrit for Mayor.

Augustus Briggs, fish, stall 305—Votes straight Rep.

Straight Dem.

James Conway, butcher—A Dem. right through.

Andrew Curry, standkeeper—"A Dem.—that's

HARRISON AND HILL.

Another Good Showing for Cleveland, Hill and Grant, arrived at the battle-ground. Material to work upon was abundant, and within ave minutes after the signal for the attack had een given by the Captain, the big markets transformed into political debating halls, and each

INTERVIEWING THE BUTCHERS AT WASHIN

alaughter had been great.

An interesting incident of the morning's campaign was the capture of a venerable dealer in outer and eggs by one of the corps. The old man voted a straight Republican ticket because he said that in his early youth he had lived in Augusta, Me., and had sat at the same deak at school wife Joe Manley, and had known Blaine when he edited a newspaper in that town. He couldn't get over his old associations.

VOTE OF THE MARKETS.

REPUBLICANS FOR HEWITT.

Andrew Curry, standardy.

A. Hecht, butcher.—A straight Rep.
D. F. McLeod, mutton and lamb, Wash. Market.—
Cleveland, Hill and Grant.
E. Abrams, printer, 33 Barclay st.—Cleveland and Hill agrain, as before, and Hewritt for Mayor.
Voted for Andrew Jackson for President in 1892.
F. J. Murray, butcher, Wash. Market.—Lives in Orange Co., N. Y. Cleveland and Hill.

Continued on Second Pages

Two Clubs to Debate the Tariff. 74, signals of distress were observed flying from the gaff peak of the German brig Venus. That vessel was in a sinking condition, having sprung a leak some days before, and when the Blake fell in with her there was eleven feet of water in the hold.

Her captain, J. Remts, together with his two children and eleven seamen, were rescued. and Philip Ahern spoke. Several weeks ago President Robert Bonyuge on behalf of the West Harlem Cleveland and Thurman Club, challenged the Hamilton Republican Club, also of Harlem, to a joint debate on the lariff. can club, also of harrent, to a just decare on the tariff.

Yesterday the preliminaries for the debate were settled. It will occur next Monday evening at Harlem Temple. Col. T. C. Campbell will represent the Hamilton Club and Counseitor Thomas C. T. Crain will uphold the banner of the Cleveland and Thurman Club.

The subject agreed upon was: 'Is the present tariff law of the United States beneficial to the country, and should it be maintained?" Each apeaker will be given three-quarters of an hour to present his argument, and diffeen minutes for a reply.

Vall Defeats Galanaugh at St. John. race between Galanaugh, of Philadelphia, and Tried to Lose Ills Father. Sebastian Weber, a silk weaver, of 509 West One

" Doubting Thomases," "Positing Thomases," remarked an eminent divine, "must exist in ratio to the too credulous." The habit of cauthousness is not, as a general thing, inborn, but is the result of a naturally generous and confiding nature repeatedly victimized by the cunning and crafty. So the many disappointments, and often injurious effects, arising from the use of various vaunted remedies, have induced an undue cautionaness, and, in many cases, entire abandonment of the use of any. We call attention to the remedies of the R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, which physicians are employing in their practice with the most beneficial results. His "Golden Medical Discovery," for diseases of the lungs and kidneys, heart afrections, fever and ague, dropsy, and all diseases of the blood, has never failed when put to the text."

proposition that Sheriff Grant and Mayor of municipal government.
One of the Committee of Twenty-five said

NO CHANCE OF CLEAR WEATHER TO-DAY.

marked Sergt. Dunn, gloomingly, to an EVENING WORLD reporter as they both stood

Assembly District last night arranged for a parade

Two Firemen Injured.
Two firemen were badly injured this morning about 8 o'clock by the over-turning of a steam fire - engine at Fourth avenue and Eighteenth street, while answering an alarm. They were removed to the notified him of his indorsement by the United Ger-man Democracy which was effected last evening on a close vote.

Rain, Warmer Brisk Winds. WASHINGTON, Oct. 97. --

